

GROUP TOURS AT THE HALL

COUNTRY MUSIC LIVES HERE.™

“THE HOUSE
THAT HOLDS
ALL THE MUSIC”

– VINCE GILL

The Country Music Hall of Fame® and Museum appeals to all ages and musical tastes. For more than 40 years, the Museum has been home to thousands of priceless artifacts, images, and sounds that have inspired young and old from around the globe.

Your group will experience true Southern hospitality, a musical journey they'll never forget, and find out for themselves why Country Music Lives Here.™

AN EXPERIENCE LIKE NO OTHER

FEEL RIGHT AT HOME

SING ME BACK HOME:

The Journey Begins

FOLK ROOTS TO THE 1960s

One of the Museum's core exhibitions, Sing Me Back Home: The Journey Begins—Folk Roots to the 1960s, is a multi-layered experience examining country music's humble origins and follows its evolution into the second half of the 20th century. From Jimmy Rogers and the earliest days of the Grand Ole Opry to the crossover smash hits of Patsy Cline, Marty Robbins, and Elvis Presley. See how the sounds of rural America changed the course of music history.

dreaming MY DREAMS

THE JOURNEY CONTINUES
1960s to the Present

Recently, the Museum opened an all-new exhibit experience, Dreaming My Dreams: The Journey Continues—1960s to the Present, adding hundreds of artifacts and multimedia elements that focus on country music's recent history. Artists such as Dolly Parton, Reba McEntire, Garth Brooks, Kenny Chesney, Brooks & Dunn, and Taylor Swift have stretched the boundaries of country music and won new audiences around the world, while remaining true to the real lives of real people, retaining its popular spirit into the 21st century.

The Country Music Hall of Fame Rotunda

A PLACE OF REVERENCE

THE COUNTRY MUSIC HALL OF FAME

Election to the Country Music Hall of Fame is the most esteemed honor in country music. The Rotunda is a special room designed to recognize Hall of Fame members in a space and fashion befitting this high honor. Members' plaques are placed randomly in the round room to ensure that each has a place of equal importance. Visitors to the Museum's 5,300-square-foot Rotunda agree that this space represents the deepest roots of the music and the highest aspirations of the membership.

HISTORIC RCA STUDIO B

NASHVILLE'S ONLY STUDIO TOUR

Nestled on renowned Music Row, Historic RCA Studio B is the oldest surviving recording studio in Nashville and one of the most famous studios in the world.

The studio was once used regularly by legends such as Eddy Arnold, Dolly Parton, and Elvis Presley—and more recently, Martina McBride, Marty Stuart, and Carrie Underwood have stepped up to this fabled microphone. Over 35,000 songs were recorded at the legendary studio, including “It’s Now or Never,” “Only the Lonely,” and “I Will Always Love You.” See where many of the greatest performers of the past fifty years created timeless music and made recording history.

CUSTOMIZE YOUR ITINERARY

HISTORIC RCA STUDIO B TOUR 🎵

Complete your Museum experience with an up-close look at Nashville's oldest remaining recording studio through a personally guided tour. Your group will hear the stories behind the legendary recordings, view vintage film footage, artifacts, photos and the original instruments used in producing countless hit recordings. Duration: 1 hour

Dolly Parton
and Porter Wagoner

STAR FOR A DAY 🎵

The star treatment begins on Music Row at Historic RCA Studio B. Your group will be personally guided and given insight into the hits that were recorded there by some of the most famous artists of all time. Then, your group will step up to the microphone and record a song in the same studio used by music's biggest stars. The excursion ends at the world-famous Wildhorse Saloon for a barbecue buffet, line-dancing lessons, and a "listen" to the group's new single. Be a hit with your group by making them a "Star For A Day." Duration: 2-1/2 hours

STORIES BEHIND THE SONGS 🎵

Discover the stories behind the music you love in a private session with one of Nashville's hit-making songwriters. This intimate session allows the rare opportunity to hear hits as they were originally written. The writer demonstrates to the group how a song is created from concept to hit. Each session ends with a meet and greet where the writer signs autographs, answers questions, and has recordings available for purchase. Duration: 1 hour

SHARING THE ART OF SONGWRITING 🎵

This session is an interactive hour in which your group acts as the co-writer of a song with one of Music City's most accomplished songwriters. The writer guides the group in composing original lyrics. The session concludes with the songwriter and group recording Nashville's newest tune together. You won't find another experience for your group that's more uniquely Nashville. Duration: 1 hour

🎵 These special packages and programs can be added to your Museum itinerary for an additional fee. Please inquire with your group sales specialist.

🎵 Keepsake CDs of the recordings are available for purchase.

MORE WAYS TO CUSTOMIZE YOUR TRIP

LEGENDS, LUNCH, AND LYRICS NEW

Nashville is home to country music, delicious Southern cooking, and great hospitality. These Nashville traditions come together in this brand new package. Groups enjoy a classic Southern “Meat n’ Three” lunch as they are entertained by the songs, stories, and writing insight from one of Nashville’s most accomplished songwriters. It is the quintessential Music City experience. Duration: 1 hour without Museum tour. Museum admission included.

CASH ON CASH NEW

No one told a story quite like Johnny Cash. That tradition continues with this new program, exclusively offered at the Country Music Hall of Fame® and Museum. Enjoy a private performance and discussion with Johnny and June’s son, John Carter Cash. John Carter will entertain you with his own original music, as well as a few numbers made famous by his legendary family. He will also answer questions from the audience and conclude with a meet and greet. Duration: 1 hour without Museum tour. Museum admission included. Based on availability.

MUSIC CITY SHOWCASE FOR PERFORMANCE GROUPS

Whether you have a singing group of twenty or a marching band of a hundred, a performance at the Museum is an experience your group will remember for a lifetime. Duration: 30 minutes

LIMITED ENGAGEMENT EXHIBITS

THE BAKERSFIELD SOUND: BUCK OWENS, MERLE HAGGARD, AND CALIFORNIA COUNTRY

Support provided by    SUNTRUST

Exhibit Open Through Dec. 31, 2014

Two of country music's most respected, influential, and successful artists, Merle Haggard and Buck

Owens, emerged in the 1960s from the thriving Bakersfield, California music. Haggard and Owens became the best-known exponents of the distinctive "Bakersfield Sound," the name given to their sharp-edged, commercially-viable alternative to the smooth Nashville Sound. This exhibit will draw on the Museum's rich collection of artifacts, vintage film footage, photos, costumes, and more to tell the story.

PATSY CLINE: CRAZY FOR LOVING YOU

Support provided by

Exhibit Open Through June 10, 2013

With her rich, emotive vocals, powerful personality, and a body of recordings that still resonates fifty years after her untimely death, Patsy Cline made an indelible mark on country and pop music. This cameo exhibition examines the life and tragically brief career of one of country music's most iconic figures through the eyes of her family, friends, and peers.

NEW EXHIBIT ANNOUNCEMENT COMING SOON!

Be sure to visit CountryMusicHallofFame.org for details about the upcoming cameo exhibition to follow Patsy Cline: Crazy For Loving You. This exhibition will feature another female superstar and member of the Country Music Hall of Fame!

EXPANDING EXPERIENCES COMING IN 2014

When the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum opens the doors in early 2014, it will have more than doubled in size, and will feature greatly expanded gallery spaces, a new theater, and much more! The Museum holds the largest collection of country music artifacts in the world, and is the hallowed home of the Hall of Fame Rotunda, making this Nashville's most energizing and inspirational destination.

Your group will enjoy sweeping views of the downtown skyline, as well as the incredible state-of-the-art CMA Theater, an 800-seat venue that will offer fans the definitive Music City listening experience. Everyone will love the new ACM Gallery, spotlighting contemporary artists, music trends, and much more!

Welcome to country music's crown jewel—expanded experiences opening in 2014!
